HNI Risk Services Expands National Capabilities
And Global Reach With Intersure

New Berlin, WI (2/11/08) – HNI Risk Services, Inc., in New Berlin expands its national capabilities and global reach with Intersure. Intersure is an exclusive organization with members agencies strategically located throughout North America. Criteria for Intersure partnership is narrow, HNI had to demonstrate financial strength, long and stable history and a progressive approach to client service. This need is driven by HNI’s growing client base with larger national risk management accounts.” As HNI has grown, we found we could capitalize on the subject matter expertise, and depth of resources a partnership with Intersure could bring. This collaborative effort will provide the best service for our clients,” said Mike Natalizio President and CEO. The Intersure network is comparable in every way to the largest national insurance organization and equal to if not superior to any services available.
